This time of year I am often asked to design gift ideas for men. I literally saw a photo of the perfect scarf and thought “I could make one like that!!” A couple nights ago, I actually dreamt about how I was going to create such a handsome piece.

Once I started, it was quite a challenge to put the design in my head into an intricate yet easy to learn cable type stitching and still keep a masculine feel. This is my finished product.

How to Crochet Tutorial: DIY Sweet Dream Romper Size 3-6 Month by YARNutopia

Each year, we try to find a fun and exciting costumes for Halloween, and I love to take you on this journey with me. As each piece of the costume is released, I will update my blog to bring more and more pieces to life. Be sure to follow along to see all these updates! The first installment of this year's Halloween costume, is this Sweet Dream Romper. Although my intent is to use this outfit for Nasir's cosplay costume as Max from the book "Where The Wild Things Are," you will be able to follow through my video tutorial to create one of your own as part of a baby layette. You can change the colors, add knee patches, use smaller buttons or eliminate the buttons altogether. The creative ideas with this fall & winter pattern are endless! One thing I think we can all agree on is that Nas will be the perfect Max.

Volume 0%

"The Gentleman's Scarf" will be perfect for the man in your life. Mine was willing to model for me to demonstrate how handsome he looks wearing one. Just in time for the holiday season!

The bulk of the stitches make it very cuddly and soft. (awww!)

My dad will continue to be the videographer, editor, and photographer for our videos when I move away.

Support YARNutopia today so we can continue to bring you clear, quality crochet tutorials even after I move into my new home!

There will be an added expense of more travel and hopefully this won't deter our ability to provide consistent videos on a weekly basis.
