NAME ANALYSIS/COMMENTS

An analysis of the above-referenced proposed name and the NUANS report for that name reveals that the proposed name appears to be primarily or only a person's name.

We would suggest the addition of a descriptive feature (word or phrase that describes the business activities, or goods or services).

Please refer to OBCA Reg. 62, 11, (1c):

11. (1) A corporate name shall not be,

(a) too general;

(b) only descriptive, in any language, of the quality, function or other characteristics of the goods or services in which the corporation deals or intends to deal;

(c) primarily or only the name or surname of an individual who is living or has died within thirty years preceding the date of filing the articles; or

(d) primarily or only a geographic name used alone, unless the proposed corporate name has been in continuous use for at least twenty years prior to the date of filing the articles or the proposed corporate name has through use acquired a meaning which renders the name distinctive. R. R.O. 1990, Reg. 62, s. 11 (1).

PLEASE REFER TO THE PAGES FOLLOWING FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.

NUANS VALIDITY PERIOD:

The validity period for a NUANS report is ninety (90) days. If you do not incorporate within that period, you must purchase a new NUANS report.

ELEMENTS OF A CORPORATE NAME:

A corporation name should include the following elements:

Distinctive element - coined word, initials, acronym, geographic location, person's name, dictionary word used in unique or fanciful manner and not associated with the business activities or goods or services.

Descriptive element - word or phrase that describes the business activities or goods or services.

Legal element - see note below on legal elements.

LEGAL ELEMENT:

If the proposed name is intended for purposes of incorporation of a business, then it will be necessary to include a legal element in the name - LIMITED, INCORPORATED, CORPORATION or the abbreviated or French form. Moreover, the abbreviated English forms must include the period (.) in the term. Please note that the following legal elements are the only ones permitted for Ontario business corporations – CORP., CORPORATION, INC., INCORPORATED, INCORPOREE, LIMITED, LIMITEE, LTD., LTEE.

If the proposed name is intended for a business registration (business name registration under the Ontario Business Names Act), then a legal element is prohibited.

TRADE-MARK INFRINGEMENT:

Infringing on trade-mark rights makes one liable by way of an injunction (an order to cease the infringing activity) and/or damages.

ONTARIO BUSINESS CORPORATIONS ACT 24.1:

Please make note of the following section of the Business Corporations Act, esp. 24.1(2)(b):

24.1 (1) Only articles of incorporation and their supporting documents may be submitted in electronic format for filing with the Director. O. Reg. 288/00, s. 2.

(2) Articles of incorporation and their supporting documents may be submitted in electronic format for filing with the Director if,

(a) the person submits them in a format compatible with the technical requirements established by the Director;

(b) the corporation agrees to keep a paper or electronic copy of the NUANS report referred to in subsection 18(2) and any consent or consent and undertaking required under the Act or the regulations at the corporation's registered office and to permit any person to inspect and copy the documents during the corporation's normal business hours; and

(c) the corporation agrees that, upon receipt of a written notice from the Director, it shall provide the Director or any other person specified in the notice with a copy of any of the documents referred to in clause (b) within the time period set out in the notice. O. Reg. 246/05/, s.5.

(3) Articles submitted in electronic format are not required to be signed. O. Reg. 288/00, s.2.
