

This vision statement will explain what is hoped to be achieved with this household. This property is an artist and musician residency, with a home studio for creative projects. The gardens found on the grounds are also available for agricultural projects.

This house is an evolving one, striving for a balance between communal living and the existing Riden family. The living space here is offered as it is; That being said, the head of the house Thaila and his wife Caitlin are always open to suggestions.

House Rules

We like to keep these minimal, but the ones listed here are essentials.

- Respect for Alternative lifestyles (ie. LGBTQ+) and philosophies (the full political spectrum) as long as they do not impose harm of any nature upon others.
- No household drama. We just want everyone to get along; therefore the type of person who creates unnecessary conflict will not be a good fit for this home.
- Be body positive (this used to be a clothing-optional campground so you cannot be offended by nudity).
- No building alterations such as using nails, creating holes, the movement of items, or anything of that nature are to be made without the consent of Thaila.
- No activities that would hinder the creation of music, art, or the expression of a chosen lifestyle.

Qualities in the roommates we are looking for:
